Jennie Talley, Inga Sarda-Sorensen

Weddings/Celebrations
September 21, 2008

Jennie Talley and Inga Gretchen Sarda were married on Saturday in Malibu, Calif. The officiant was their friend Bonita Bielski, who was appointed a deputy marriage commissioner for the occasion by Los Angeles County. Later, the Rev. Katharine Flexer blessed the marriage at St. Aidan's Episcopal Church in Malibu.

Ms. Talley (left), 54, works in New York as an executive sales representative for the United States pharmaceutical subsidiary of Solvay, the Belgian chemical company. She graduated from the University of California, Irvine.

She is a daughter of Barbara H. Pyne of Thousand Oaks, Calif., and the late Robert G. Talley, who lived in Camarillo, Calif. Her mother retired as an executive assistant at the Burroughs Corporation, the computer company; she worked in the Westlake Village, Calif., office. Ms. Talley's father, a pharmacist, was the owner of Talley's Pharmacy in Thousand Oaks. Ms. Talley is a stepdaughter of Max E. Pyne.

Ms. Sarda, 44, is known as Inga Sarda-Sorensen; she uses a combination of her father's legal surname and his family's original Danish name. She is the deputy communications director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force in New York. She graduated from the State University at Albany.

She is a daughter of Lynn Van Eseltine Sarda of New Paltz, N.Y., and the late Reese I. Sarda, who lived in Port Ewen, N.Y. Her mother retired as the director of the Mid-Hudson Teacher Center, a professional development agency located on the campus of the State University College at New Paltz.
